Salary: £60,548 – 63,259 per annum

Holiday: 30 days plus bank holidays

Pension: Group personal pension scheme
5% employee contribution – 6% employer contribution

About Us

Formed in 1948, Tavistock Relationships is internationally renowned as an organisation delivering and developing advanced practice, training and research in therapeutic and psycho-educational approaches to supporting couples.

We deliver professional training to the next generation of couple therapists and provide clinical services to couples and parents throughout London. We provide a range of affordable counselling and psychotherapy services which support clients experiencing challenges in their relationships, their sexual lives and their parenting.

In addition, we undertake research, service development and policy activities which encourage the development and growth of effective and innovative relationship support interventions.

Courses and Training

We provide accredited professional trainings in Counselling, Psychotherapy and Psychosexual Therapy, from introductory courses to doctoral programmes.

We also offer a full programme of CPD courses and conferences which provide opportunities for professionals to further develop their expertise.

Furthermore, we work with local and national government, the health sector, education and other voluntary organisations who commission us to develop and deliver training as well as relationship support programmes.

Counselling and Therapy Services

Our team of clinicians offer a range of affordable counselling and therapy services to support every individual, couple or parent facing relationship problems. Uniquely Tavistock Relationships is the only London based service that provides a payment sliding scale meaning that our services are accessible for all those who wish to use them.

For more information about our counselling and therapy services please visit www.tavistockrelationships.org.

Policy and Research

Tavistock Relationships undertakes service development, policy and research activities to encourage the development of effective and cutting edge relationship support services. We raise awareness of the importance of relationships to the health and well-being of our society by influencing politicians and policy-makers at the highest level.

We are committed to delivering the highest quality of service to all of our clients and to a culture of continuous improvement. Read more about how we review our services and ensure a commitment to quality.

Innovative Projects

One way we bring innovative practice into being is through our projects. These new and challenging pieces of commissioned work (often including third sector, health as well as national or local government partnerships) include specially designed clinical delivery and front line training. Details of current projects we have can be found in our Services and Programmes page.

Purpose of Job

- Establish, lead and manage a new DWP-funded programme, trialling a number of different interventions with co-parental couples, all aimed at strengthening co-parenting relationships, and reducing parental conflict;
- Develop and sustain effective, rigorous and supportive relationships with training providers and sub-contractors, while liaising closely with partner local authorities and the DWP as contract manager;
- Lead a staff team of practitioners responsible for delivering the interventions with parents, sustaining a high quality of work at all times;
- Review the effectiveness of the work continuously, responding to challenges and introducing necessary alterations.

Background to the Parental Conflict Programme

The Department for Work and Pensions have awarded a contract to Tavistock Relationships to implement their new and innovative Reducing Parental Conflict programme, to be delivered to families in the London Boroughs of Brent, Camden, Kensington and Chelsea, Westminster, Hammersmith and Fulham, Lambeth and Croydon. (This is one of four regional areas – nationally, the intention is to trial a number of different ways of working with parental couples and to evaluate the effectiveness of each.) In the London region, the lead borough will be Westminster, and the nominated interventions are Triple P Family Transitions, Triple P Advanced, Within My Reach and Family Check Up.

Local authority partners in each participating London borough will be invited to identify and refer couples and co-parents from workless or low-income families, where difficulties in their relationship are affecting their parenting capacity.

The role of Tavistock Relationships will be to co-ordinate a team of practitioners to carry out the work, some employed directly by Tavistock Relationships and some by sub-contractors (Relate, Asian Family Counselling Service, Family Lives, Elfrida Rathbone Camden) and to maintain the quality and effectiveness of that work.

Responsibilities

Develop and manage the work with parents

- To appoint and lead a team of practitioners and other project staff;
- To be fully conversant with all of the parenting/relationship interventions to be delivered and to ensure that all staff are trained the interventions they will be working with;
- To work with partners to develop a marketing and publicity strategy for both professional colleagues and potential clients;
- To set up clear, effective and workable systems for case management of the work with parents, from receiving and allocating client referrals to safe discharge;
- To co-ordinate an outreach and information programme for referrers, ensuring that all relevant professionals are aware of the programme and understand the referral route;
- To provide a timely, accessible and straightforward system of response to clients, including clarity about the service offered and an openness to feedback, including complaints where necessary;
- To put in place management and supervision systems, which ensure that all staff are delivering the work with parents to an acceptable standard, and are safe and supported in doing so;
- To have an overview of progress in referral and delivery at all times, with particular reference to performance standards and delivery targets;
- To provide or co-ordinate regular opportunities for staff development and reflection on the quality of the work, through clinical supervision, workshops and events for all programme colleagues;
- To ensure that clear record-keeping systems are in place and maintained, and that all necessary data is collected, recorded and reported on as appropriate;
- To ensure that all work, both at Tavistock Relationships and of sub-contractors, complies with good practice standards in relation to safeguarding, data protection and all other areas of risk.

Manage relationships with sub-contractors

- To establish good working relationships with the sub-contractors, monitoring and managing the contract arrangements with them and ensuring clarity about their responsibilities;
- To respond promptly should sub-contractors face difficulties in delivery, using a range of performance management tools.

Liaison with DWP and Lead Borough

- To foster creative and productive relationships with DWP Implementation leads and with the designated RPC representative in the lead borough (Westminster);
- To be fully familiar, and to ensure compliance with, the demands and requirements of the Reducing Parental Conflict contract;
- To put in place systems which ensure that all necessary information in relation to delivery of the programme is kept accurate and up-to-date;
- To provide regular phone updates on progress of the programme as required;
- To provide regular written reports on progress of the work;
- To monitor and identify any delays or challenges to programme delivery, and to develop and implement action plans for addressing difficulties.

Management team at Tavistock Relationships

- To be an active member of the management team at Tavistock Relationships, understanding how the work of this programme fits – clinically, operationally and financially – within the overall vision of Tavistock Relationships' work;
- To be responsible for managing the budget of the programme;
- To undertake all necessary internal reporting, including financial accounting and management;
- To work closely with Tavistock Relationships senior staff, the Director of Clinical Services, Director of Training, Director of Strategic Development, the administrative and finance teams to ensure that processes are effective and that management information is regular and reliable;
- Any other duties as required (including the potential development of new projects).
